FANCY JEANS PARTY

After losing her only child to cancer, Sandra Muvdi created the Jessica June Children's Cancer Foundation in 2004 to assist children and their families dealing with the impact of pediatric cancer. The foundation's signature event, Fancy Jeans Party sponsored by Steve Savor, is set for April 1 at Revolution Live in Fort Lauderdale. The sixth annual affair will feature live entertainment, a "Best Dressed Fancy Jeans" contest, raffle and silent auction. This year's honoree is 11-year-old Veronica Avila, a survivor of bone cancer; her wish is for Ellen DeGeneres to be her celebrity date at the event. General admission is $100; VIP tickets are $200 in advance. Visit jjccf.org or call 954.712.6322.
